March 15, 2000

The Wasa

Wave's editorial position

A Community Success Story

Last September's visit to Wasatch County by the Utah Legislature was a crucial event that contributed to the county receiving nearly a million dollars in capital project and Olympic fund money at the close of this year's legislative session.

Several people came together to make the visit memorable for legislators Sen. Beverly Eyans, Rep. Gordon Snow, Homestead General Manager Britt Mathwich, Soldier Hollow Legacy Committee Chairman Howard tion of a new building, Combined with Peterson, Wasatch County Economic $700,000 for a day-lodge at Soldier and Development Director Robyn Hollow, Wasatch County came out a big Pearson, Rep. David Ure of Kamas, County Commission Chairman Mike Kohler, Heber Valley Railroad Director railroad, as well as Soldier Hollow, will Craig Lacy, as well as scores of citizens: receive the funds necessary to start the and several other county department: process toward a continued legacy.

personnel.

"It's extremely rare for one county to get nearly a million dollars," said Rep. Gordon Snow, sponsor of the bill. Snow added that the legislative visit was a success because of a team effort, helping to secure this year's appropriation.

In fact, there were just 15 new capital project items approved in this year's session. And only one item, $260,000 for the Heber Valley Historic Railroad Depot, was earmarked for the construcwinner.

Thanks to everyone involved, the